1 INSTRUCTION NO. 1

2 Members of the jury, now that you have heard all the evidence, 3 it is my duty to instruct you on the law that applies to this case.
4 A copy of these instructions will be available in the jury room for 5 you to consult.

6 It is your duty to weigh and to evaluate all the evidence
7 received in the case and, in that process, to decide the facts. It 8 is also your duty to apply the law as I give it to you to the facts 9 as you find them, whether you agree with the law or not. You must 10 decide the case solely on the evidence and the law. You will recall 11 that you took an oath promising to do so at the beginning of the 12 case. You should also not be influenced by any person's race, color, 13 religious beliefs, national ancestry, sexual orientation, gender 14 identity, gender, or economic circumstances. Also, do not allow 15 yourself to be influenced by personal likes or dislikes, sympathy, 16 prejudice, fear, public opinion, or biases, including unconscious 17 biases. Unconscious biases are stereotypes, attitudes, or 18 preferences that people may consciously reject but may be expressed 19 without conscious awareness, control, or intention.

20 You must follow all these instructions and not single out some 21 and ignore others; they are all important. Please do not read into 22 these instructions or into anything I may have said or done as any 23 suggestion as to what verdict you should return—that is a matter 24 entirely up to you.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 2

2 The indictment is not evidence. The defendant has pleaded not 3 guilty to the charges. The defendant is presumed to be innocent 4 unless and until the government proves the defendant guilty beyond a 5 reasonable doubt. In addition, the defendant does not have to 6 testify or present any evidence. The defendant does not have to 7 prove innocence; the government has the burden of proving every 8 element of the charges beyond a reasonable doubt.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 3

2 The defendant has testified. You should treat this testimony 3 just as you would the testimony of any other witness.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 4

2 Proof beyond a reasonable doubt is proof that leaves you firmly 3 convinced the defendant is guilty. It is not required that the 4 government prove guilt beyond all possible doubt.

5 A reasonable doubt is a doubt based upon reason and common sense 6 and is not based purely on speculation. It may arise from a careful 7 and impartial consideration of all the evidence, or from lack of 8 evidence.

9 If after a careful and impartial consideration of all the 10 evidence, you are not convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the 11 defendant is guilty, it is your duty to find the defendant not 12 guilty. On the other hand, if after a careful and impartial 13 consideration of all the evidence, you are convinced beyond a 14 reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty, it is your duty to 15 find the defendant guilty.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 5

2 The evidence you are to consider in deciding what the facts are 3 consists of:

4 First, the sworn testimony of any witness;

5 Second, the exhibits received in evidence; and 6 Third, any facts to which the parties have agreed.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 6

2 In reaching your verdict you may consider only the testimony and 3 exhibits received in evidence. The following things are not 4 evidence, and you may not consider them in deciding what the facts 5 are:

6 1. Questions, statements, objections, and arguments by the 7 lawyers are not evidence. The lawyers are not witnesses. Although 8 you must consider a lawyer's questions to understand the answers of a 9 witness, the lawyer's questions are not evidence. Similarly, what 10 the lawyers have said in their opening statements, will say in their 11 closing arguments, and have said at other times is intended to help 12 you interpret the evidence, but it is not evidence. If the facts as 13 you remember them differ from the way the lawyers state them, your 14 memory of them controls.

15 2. Any testimony that I have excluded, stricken, or instructed 16 you to disregard is not evidence. In addition, some evidence was 17 received only for a limited purpose; when I have instructed you to 18 consider certain evidence in a limited way, you must do so.

19 3. Anything you may have seen or heard when the court was not in 20 session is not evidence. You are to decide the case solely on the 21 evidence received at the trial.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 7

2 Evidence may be direct or circumstantial. Direct evidence is 3 direct proof of a fact, such as testimony by a witness about what 4 that witness personally saw or heard or did. Circumstantial evidence 5 is indirect evidence, that is, it is proof of one or more facts from 6 which you can find another fact.

7 You are to consider both direct and circumstantial evidence.
8 Either can be used to prove any fact. The law makes no distinction 9 between the weight to be given to either direct or circumstantial 10 evidence. It is for you to decide how much weight to give to any 11 evidence.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 8

2 In deciding the facts in this case, you may have to decide which 3 testimony to believe and which testimony not to believe. You may 4 believe everything a witness says, or part of it, or none of it.

5 In considering the testimony of any witness, you may take into 6 account the following:

7 First, the opportunity and ability of the witness to see or hear 8 or know the things testified to;

9 Second, the witness's memory;

10 Third, the witness's manner while testifying;

11 Fourth, the witness's interest in the outcome of the case, if 12 any;

13 Fifth, the witness's bias or prejudice, if any;

14 Sixth, whether other evidence contradicted the witness's 15 testimony;

16 Seventh, the reasonableness of the witness's testimony in light 17 of all the evidence; and 18 Eighth, any other factors that bear on believability.

19 Sometimes a witness may say something that is not consistent 20 with something else he or she said. Sometimes different witnesses 21 will give different versions of what happened. People often forget 22 things or make mistakes in what they remember. Also, two people may 23 see the same event but remember it differently. You may consider 24 these differences, but do not decide that testimony is untrue just 25 because it differs from other testimony.

26 However, if you decide that a witness has deliberately testified 27 untruthfully about something important, you may choose not to believe 28 anything that witness said. On the other hand, if you think the

1 witness testified untruthfully about some things but told the truth
2 about others, you may accept the part you think is true and ignore 3 the rest.

4 You must avoid bias, conscious or unconscious, based on a 5 witness's race, color, religious beliefs, national ancestry, sexual 6 orientation, gender identity, gender, or economic circumstances in 7 your determination of credibility.

8 The weight of the evidence as to a fact does not necessarily 9 depend on the number of witnesses who testify. What is important is 10 how believable the witnesses were, and how much weight you think 11 their testimony deserves.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 12

2 You have heard testimony and have seen evidence about the 3 defendant's beliefs. This evidence is admitted only for the below 4 limited purposes of deciding whether the defendant:

- 5 • had the state of mind, knowledge, or intent necessary to 6 commit the crimes charged in the indictment;
- 7 • had a motive or the opportunity to commit the acts charged 8 in the indictment;
- 9 • was preparing or planning to commit the acts charged in the 10 indictment; or
- 11 • did not commit the acts for which the defendant is on trial 12 by accident or mistake.

13 Do not consider this evidence for any other purpose.

14 Of course, it is for you to determine whether you believe this 15 evidence and, if you do believe it, whether you accept it for the 16 purpose offered. You may give it such weight as you feel it 17 deserves, but only for the limited purpose that I described to you.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 13

2 You have heard testimony from Dr. Pete Simi, who testified about 3 his opinions and the reasons for those opinions. This opinion 4 testimony is allowed because of the specialized knowledge, skill, 5 experience, training, or education of this witness.

6 Such opinion testimony should be judged like any other 7 testimony. You may accept it or reject it and give it as much weight 8 as you think it deserves, considering the witness's knowledge, skill, 9 experience, training, or education, the reasons given for the 10 opinion, and all the other evidence in the case.

2 The indictment charges that the offenses alleged were committed

4 Although it is necessary for the government to prove beyond a

6 near the date alleged in the indictment, it is not necessary for the 7 government to prove that the offense was committed precisely on the 8 date charged.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 15

2 The defendant is charged in Count One of the indictment with 3 conspiring to riot in violation of Section 371 of Title 18 of the 4 United States Code. For the defendant to be found guilty of that 5 charge, the government must prove each of the following elements 6 beyond a reasonable doubt:

7 First, beginning in or around March 2017, and continuing until 8 in or about May 2018, there was an agreement between two or more 9 persons to commit at least one crime as charged in the indictment;

10 Second, the defendant became a member of the conspiracy knowing 11 of at least one of its objects and intending to help accomplish it; 12 and

13 Third, one of the members of the conspiracy performed at least 14 one overt act for the purpose of carrying out the conspiracy.

15 A conspiracy is a kind of criminal partnership – an agreement of 16 two or more persons to commit one or more crimes. The crime of 17 conspiracy is the agreement to do something unlawful; it does not 18 matter whether the crime agreed upon was committed.

19 For a conspiracy to have existed, it is not necessary that the 20 conspirators made a formal agreement or that they agreed on every 21 detail of the conspiracy. It is not enough, however, that they 22 simply met, discussed matters of common interest, acted in similar 23 ways, or perhaps helped one another. You must find that there was a 24 plan to commit at least one of the crimes alleged in the indictment 25 as an object of the conspiracy with all of you agreeing as to the 26 particular crime which the conspirators agreed to commit.

27 One becomes a member of a conspiracy by knowingly participating 28 in the unlawful plan with the intent to advance or further some

1 object or purpose of the conspiracy, even though the person does not 2 have full knowledge of all the details of the conspiracy.

3 Furthermore, one who knowingly joins an existing conspiracy is as 4 responsible for it as the originators. On the other hand, one who 5 has no knowledge of a conspiracy, but happens to act in a way which 6 furthers some object or purpose of the conspiracy, does not thereby 7 become a conspirator. Similarly, a person does not become a 8 conspirator merely by associating with one or more persons who are 9 conspirators, nor merely by knowing that a conspiracy exists.

10 An overt act does not itself have to be unlawful. A lawful act 11 may be an element of a conspiracy if it was done for the purpose of 12 carrying out the conspiracy. The government is not required to prove 13 that the defendant personally did one of the overt acts.

14 Conspiracy to commit a crime does not require completion of the 15 intended underlying offense.

16 An agreement to commit a crime can be explicit or tacit, and can 17 be proved by direct or circumstantial evidence, including inferences 18 from circumstantial evidence.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 16

2 The defendant is charged in Count Two of the indictment with 3 rioting, in violation of Section 2101 of Title 18 of the United 4 States Code. For the defendant to be found guilty of that charge, 5 the government must prove each of the following elements beyond a 6 reasonable doubt:

7 First, the defendant used a facility of interstate commerce,
8 such as the mail, telephone, television, or Internet;

9 Second, the defendant used such a facility with the intent 10 (a) to incite a riot; (b) to participate in, or carry on a riot; 11 (c) to commit any act of violence in furtherance of a riot; or (d) to aid 12 or abet any person inciting, or participating in or carrying on a 13 riot, or committing any act of violence in furtherance of a riot;

14 Third, during the course of using a facility of interstate 15 commerce or thereafter, the defendant intentionally performed or 16 attempted to perform an act specified in subsections (a), (b), (c), 17 or (d) above.

18 Fourth, the defendant did not act in reasonable self-defense.

19 The nature and details of the riot defendant contemplated at the 20 time defendant used the facility of interstate commerce need not have 21 remained exactly the same until the time defendant performed or 22 attempted to perform the later act, but they must be sufficiently 23 similar that it is reasonable to say that what later occurred was the 24 evolving product of the riot intended earlier.

25 The term "riot" means a public disturbance involving (1) an act 26 or acts of violence by one or more persons part of an assemblage of 27 three or more persons, which act or acts shall constitute a clear and 28 present danger of, or shall result in, damage or injury to the

1 property of any other person or to the person of any other individual 2 or (2) a threat or threats of the commission of an act or acts of 3 violence by one or more persons part of an assemblage of three or 4 more persons having, individually or collectively, the ability of 5 immediate execution of such threat or threats, where the performance 6 of the threatened act or acts of violence would constitute a clear 7 and present danger of, or would result in, damage or injury to the 8 property of any other person or to the person of any other 9 individual.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 17

2 A defendant may be found guilty of rioting, even if the 3 defendant personally did not commit the act or acts constituting the 4 crime but aided and abetted in its commission. To "aid and abet"
5 means intentionally to help someone else commit a crime. To prove a 6 defendant guilty of rioting by aiding and abetting, the government 7 must prove each of the following beyond a reasonable doubt:

8 First, someone else committed the offense of rioting;

9 Second, the defendant aided, counseled, commanded, induced, or 10 procured that person with respect to at least one element of rioting;

11 Third, the defendant acted with the intent to facilitate 12 rioting; and

13 Fourth, the defendant acted before the crime was completed.

14 It is not enough that the defendant merely associated with the 15 person committing the crime, or unknowingly or unintentionally did 16 things that were helpful to that person or was present at the scene 17 of the crime. The evidence must show beyond a reasonable doubt that 18 the defendant acted with the knowledge and intention of helping that 19 person commit rioting.

20 A defendant acts with the intent to facilitate the crime when 21 the defendant actively participates in a criminal venture with 22 advance knowledge of the crime and having acquired that knowledge 23 when the defendant still had a realistic opportunity to withdraw from 24 the crime.

25 The government is not required to prove precisely which 26 defendant actually committed the crime and which defendant aided and 27 abetted.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 18

2 Each member of the conspiracy is responsible for the actions of 3 the other conspirators performed during the course and in furtherance 4 of the conspiracy. If one member of a conspiracy commits a crime in 5 furtherance of a conspiracy, the other members have also, under the 6 law, committed that crime.

7 Therefore, you may find the defendant guilty of Rioting as 8 charged in Count Two of the indictment if the government has proved 9 each of the following elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

10 First, Robert Rundo committed the crime of Rioting as alleged in 11 that Count Two of the indictment;

12 Second, Robert Rundo was a member of the conspiracy charged in 13 Count One of the indictment;

14 Third, Robert Rundo committed the crime of Rioting in 15 furtherance of the conspiracy;

16 Fourth, the defendant was a member of the same conspiracy at the 17 time the offense charged in Count Two was committed; and

18 Fifth, the offense fell within the scope of the unlawful 19 agreement and could reasonably have been foreseen to be a necessary 20 or natural consequence of the unlawful agreement.

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 19

2 The defendant has offered evidence of having acted in self-
3 defense. Use of force is justified when a person reasonably believes 4 that it is necessary for the defense of oneself or another against 5 the immediate use of unlawful force. However, a person must use no 6 more force than appears reasonably necessary under the circumstances.

7 Force likely to cause death or great bodily harm is justified in 8 self-defense only if a person reasonably believes that such force is 9 necessary to prevent death or great bodily harm.

10 The government must prove beyond a reasonable doubt, with all of 11 you agreeing, that the defendant did not act in reasonable self-12 defense.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 20

2 When you begin your deliberations, elect one member of the jury 3 as your foreperson who will preside over the deliberations and speak 4 for you here in court.

5 You will then discuss the case with your fellow jurors to reach 6 agreement if you can do so. Your verdict, whether guilty or not 7 guilty, must be unanimous.

8 Each of you must decide the case for yourself, but you should do 9 so only after you have considered all the evidence, discussed it 10 fully with the other jurors, and listened to the views of your fellow 11 jurors.

12 Do not be afraid to change your opinion if the discussion 13 persuades you that you should. But do not come to a decision simply 14 because other jurors think it is right.

15 It is important that you attempt to reach a unanimous verdict 16 but, of course, only if each of you can do so after having made your 17 own conscientious decision. Do not change an honest belief about the 18 weight and effect of the evidence simply to reach a verdict.

19 Perform these duties fairly and impartially. You should also 20 not be influenced by any person's race, color, religious beliefs, 21 national ancestry, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender, or 22 economic circumstances. Also, do not allow yourself to be influenced 23 by personal likes or dislikes, sympathy, prejudice, fear, public 24 opinion, or biases, including unconscious biases. Unconscious biases 25 are stereotypes, attitudes, or preferences that people may 26 consciously reject but may be expressed without conscious awareness, 27 control, or intention.

1 It is your duty as jurors to consult with one another and to 2 deliberate with one another with a view towards reaching an agreement
3 if you can do so. During your deliberations, you should not hesitate 4 to reexamine your own views and change your opinion if you become 5 persuaded that it is wrong.

2 Because you must base your verdict only on the evidence received 3 in the case and on these instructions, I remind you that you must not 4 be exposed to any other information about the case or to the issues
5 it involves. Except for discussing the case with your fellow jurors 6 during your deliberations:

7 Do not communicate with anyone in any way and do not let 8 anyone else communicate with you in any way about the merits of 9 the case or anything to do with it. This restriction includes 10 discussing the case in person, in writing, by phone, tablet, 11 computer, or any other means, via email, text messaging, or any 12 Internet chat room, blog, website or any other forms of social 13 media. This restriction applies to communicating with your 14 family members, your employer, the media or press, and the 15 people involved in the trial. If you are asked or approached in 16 any way about your jury service or anything about this case, you 17 must respond that you have been ordered not to discuss the 18 matter and to report the contact to the court.

19 Do not read, watch, or listen to any news or media accounts 20 or commentary about the case or anything to do with it; do not 21 do any research, such as consulting dictionaries, searching the 22 Internet or using other reference materials; and do not make any 23 investigation or in any other way try to learn about the case on 24 your own.

25 The law requires these restrictions to ensure the parties have a 26 fair trial based on the same evidence that each party has had an 27 opportunity to address. A juror who violates these restrictions 28 jeopardizes the fairness of these proceedings, and a mistrial could

1 result that would require the entire trial process to start over. If 2 any juror is exposed to any outside information, please notify the 3 court immediately.

1 INSTRUCTION NO. 26

2 Because a request has been made for a [readback] [playback] of 3 the testimony of [witness's name] it is being provided to you, but 4 you are cautioned that all [readbacks] [playbacks] run the risk of 5 distorting the trial because of overemphasis of one portion of the 6 testimony. [Therefore, you will be required to hear all the 7 witness's testimony on direct and cross-examination, to avoid the 8 risk that you might miss a portion bearing on your judgment of what 9 testimony to accept as credible.] [Because of the length of the 10 testimony of this witness, excerpts will be [read] [played].] The 11 [readback] [playback] could contain errors. The [readback] 12 [playback] cannot reflect matters of demeanor, tone of voice, and 13 other aspects of the live testimony. Your recollection and 14 understanding of the testimony controls. Finally, in your exercise 15 of judgment, the testimony [read] [played] cannot be considered in 16 isolation but must be considered in the context of all the evidence 17 presented.
